In 1642, 16 years after Peter Minuit purchased the island of Manhattan and 134 years before the Revolutionary War, Saint Isaac Jogues, S.J., sought refuge from the Mohawk Indians in the settlement of New Amsterdam.

Please join us to for an evening with Father Grimes speaking about the fascinating, early history of the Society and its various apostolates in New York, including the Jesuits' arrival in 1846 at Fordham, then known as St. John's College, and the founding of the Church of St. Francis Xavier, and college, shortly after.
