JESUIT HIGHER EDUCATION HONOR SOCIETY NEWSLETTER • Summer 2003

President's update

Dear Members,

This edition of the Alpha Sigma Nu newsletter contains many exciting stories.

We have continued the important work of providing scholarships at all our member schools. We have continued to award the AΣN Book Awards in conjunction with the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU). We have 1,529 new inductees this year coming from 31 of our chapters. And our website is better than ever with an outstanding directory to help members to find others in your cities, from your professional areas, school and years.

The work that we have been about for years is alive and well.

The most exciting news this year, however, is the rapid expansion of alumni clubs throughout the country. Under the direction of our new Director of Alumni Clubs, Kate Gaertner, we have begun six new clubs. In addition to the longtime alumni clubs in Omaha, Milwaukee, and Kansas City, we have added clubs in Boston, Buffalo, Chicago, Denver, New York and Washington DC.

These clubs give us the opportunity to continue to live the commitment that we began years ago at our Jesuit school, a commitment to scholarship, loyalty and service.

This is also the year of our triennial convention, held this October in Denver. As we bring together outstanding members from all our chapters and clubs, we will learn from each other ways to be even more effective in the work that we do. Our theme, In the Present - for the Future: Men and Women for Others, will touch on many important areas of where we are and where we can go in the future.

At our convention, we will take the opportunity to give the second Lifetime Achievement Award to Russell Goings (Xavier '59).

Also at the convention I will conclude my term on the board and as president of AΣN. I have greatly enjoyed serving in this capacity and am very grateful to the staff and board who have made these years such a pleasure. I am also very grateful to you our members who have made possible the initiatives we have undertaken. I look forward to remaining active and being a part of the growth and life of AΣN.

May the Lord who has begun this good work through us, bring it to completion. Have a restful and blessed summer.

Sustaining Fund hits new high

Alpha Sigma Nu members proved more generous than ever, donating $139,184 and surpassing all previous years. Daniel K. Lahart, SJ, President, commented that the board considers this a vote of confidence in the directions they have set for this organization. Average gift size increased from $43.66 to $46.93. The number of new gifts increased from 274 to 339. Contributing factors may include: the efforts of the new Director of Alumni Clubs in establishing 6 new Alumni Clubs; the experimental use of colored response envelopes; another effective letter to young alums signed by student board member Chadd Kraus, (Loyola Baltimore '00); location of 1,642 alumni who were inexplicably missing from our records.

John Pustejovsky (Marquette '75), Robert Wild, SJ, (Weston '96) and Anthony Kuchan (Marquette '82) pose before the nearly completed Raynor Library where the first Alpha Sigma Nu Room will be located. The Library houses the AΣN archives and Book Award volumes.

Triennial Convention October 23-26, 2003

In The Present - For the Future: Men and Women for Others will be the theme for the 29th AΣN Triennial Convention hosted by Regis University in Denver, Colorado. The program committee incorporated comments from the last convention as well as input from the Board to plan a dynamic, interactive and productive meeting. The kick-off speaker will be Joanne Glavin McClatchy, executive Director of the Nativity School of Worcester. Her topic Nurturing Dreams and Gifts: The Evolution of Vocation Throughout Life. McClatchy brings a rich background having been successful at a major financial institution, as an entrepreneur and now as an urban educator.

Russell L. Goings (Xavier '59) will receive the Ann and Richard Panlener Lifetime Achievement Award at the conclusion of the Convention. Goings exemplifies scholarship, loyalty and service in his entrepreneurial career. He has been the first African-American to hold a seat on the New York Stock Exchange and the original publisher of Essence magazine. He has just completed an epic poem The Children of Children Keep Coming which will soon be published.

New this year will be the presence of delegates from six new alumni clubs along with the three active, long time clubs. The delegates will approve Bylaws and a mission statement. New board members will be elected. Members wishing to be considered for nomination to the board by the Nominating committee should submit a letter of interest along with a resume to the AΣN office by August 23. Nominations may also be presented by written petition at the Triennial and must bear the signatures of at least six delegates from at least three chapters.

Check new jewelry offerings

In response to member comments, we have added Alpha Sigma Nu signet rings for men and women, and sterling silver jewelry to our offerings. For information and pricing, check out the order form with this Newsletter or visit our website at www.AlphaSigmaNu.org. Please enjoy and wear with pride.

Recognize anyone? That is Tim Russert (John Carroll '71), peeking out from the back row of his induction class at John Carroll. This is a reproduction of the yearbook photo from that year, but it did not list names. This entire class is missing from AΣN's database. Please help us fill-in the blanks and identify these members. If anyone can name them all they will receive an AΣN paperweight.

Good news, bad news

Thus began a telephone conversation with Thomas Regan, SJ, (Fairfield '84) Alumni Adviser to the AΣN Board. Regan was calling to say that he had been elected Provincial of the New England Province of the Jesuits. This is a great honor and a responsibility so large that it requires resignation from other boards. And that is the bad news for AΣN. Regan served as Board President from 1991-1997 and Faculty Adviser at Fairfield from 1989 to 1995. During his tenure the Harris Alumni Directory was produced, the AΣN Website introduced and several alumni initiatives begun. He will be missed, but not forgotten.

Sr. Helen Prejean, CSJ, shares a laugh with Gregory Lucey, SJ, (Spring Hill '98) President of Spring Hill College, at her induction into AΣN in November 2002.
