

Alpha Sigma Nu

Summer 2004

The Honor Society of Jesuit Institutions of Higher Education Since 1915

President's update

Dear Members,

This has been a year of great celebration and success for Alpha Sigma Nu. At the Triennial Conference at Regis University in October 2003, representatives and Faculty Advisers of Chapters and delegates from Alumni Clubs came together for a terrific meeting. At the Triennial we adopted major revisions to our Bylaws, inaugurated the "Chartering" of nine (9) Alumni Clubs, created a new committee, and elected new board members and officers. We also announced that Kate Gaertner had been selected as the new full time Executive Director of AΣN, effective upon Peg Fennig's retirement at the end of June 2004.

This has been a year of significant records for our Society: Our Chapters inducted an all time high of 1,669 new members. Our Sustaining Fund received an unprecedented $152,273 in donations, more than ever before. This tells us that you like what we are doing. And it allows AΣN to do more. To further strengthen AΣN, we will soon accept electronic contributions and gifts of stock as well as bequests through your trusts and wills. These methods make it easier for you to support our Society's initiatives.

Our new Board has met twice this year. In response to the Triennial's challenge to help Alumni Clubs and Chapters continue adult formation in Jesuit Values, the Board met immediately after the Triennial and created an Ongoing Formation Committee. This Committee has been meeting regularly, and you should expect its report shortly. The Board met a second time in April 2004 at Marquette University in Milwaukee, attending the Marquette Chapter induction and honoring the decade-long service of Peg Fennig, our wonderful Executive Director. In her honor, we created the Peg Fennig Award to be awarded at Triennial Conferences to a member who has contributed to the vitality of AΣN.

Our AΣN website is continually updated. There you will find current and future Chapter and Club activities, calendars, history, donation options, the Member Directory -- everything you want to know about AΣN. Address: www.AlphaSigmaNu.org. Password: asns1s

We have added a new Alumni Club (our 10th) in the Baltimore area and Los Angeles is in process. Welcome!

With your continued cooperation, we anticipate another year of growth and challenge. Thank you for your participation, and your continued loyalty to our Society.

Sincerely

Mark A. Kadzielski
Board President

The journey continues

Outgoing President Dan Lahart, SJ, (Georgetown '82) was leading the Triennial Conference session, "Where Do We Go from Here?" when he got the answer from student, Faculty Adviser and alumni delegates. They began to define what alumni and students around the country have been talking about ...they are looking for more. They express a continuing commitment to the ideals of Jesuit education and a desire for programs that deepen their Ignatian spirituality.

Our members seek a different kind of "continuing education" beyond the work of four years of college. The Board of Alpha Sigma Nu appointed the Ongoing Formation Committee to foster adult formation of its members as they grow. The Committee members bring many academic and professional experiences to the group, as they include professors, students, Alumni Club presidents, an Ignatian Associate and a chaplain. Their efforts will include helping Chapters and Clubs develop spiritual, academic and person-focused initiatives, from speaker events to retreats. The goal: to assist members in discovering, experiencing and embodying Ignatian spirituality in their relationships, leadership, service and theological growth.

The Ongoing Formation Committee is chaired by Thomas Franks, OFM, (Fordham '02) and has as its members Sarah Doherty (Xavier '03), Gilles Mongeau, SJ, (Gonzaga '89), John Pustejovsky (Marquette '75), Judy Talvacchia (Weston '96) and Andrea Zardetto-Smith (Loyola Chicago '85).

Correction

In the Summer 2003 AΣN Writes, the name of Leo Manglaviti, SJ, (Weston '99) was misspelled. Our apologies.

AΣN on AJCU

At its January 31, 2004, meeting, the Board of Directors of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) considered and responded to AΣN's concerns and plans as addressed in a letter from Mark A. Kadzielski. This level of cooperation from the Presidents of all of our member institutions is one of the unique attributes of AΣN among honor societies. Thank you to Fr. Charles L. Currie, SJ, (Wheeling Jesuit '72) AJCU president, and to Anne D. Garner, Director of Administration, for their support. AJCU also manages the judging of the annual Book Awards.

Chapter highlights

Canisius continues its service with a benefit concert for a school in Afghanistan and its annual Christmas Party for refugee children. This active group also participated in a Community Clean-up. Creighton welcomed 55 new inductees to the student Chapter with a dinner in their honor. That evening, the Chapter presented the Annual AΣN National Book Award to Ruth Purtilo from the Center for Health Policy and Ethics, and Amy Haddad, (Creighton '95) from the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions, for their volume Health Professional and Patient Interaction. Fairfield students collect Christmas gifts for homeless children and work with Prospect House and Merton House. LeMoyne members volunteered at the Rescue Mission in addition to entering a team in the Heart Walk benefiting the American Heart Association. Loyola in Maryland annually presents a Teacher of the Year Award. Loyola New Orleans members collaborated with the school's Community Action Program to accompany senior citizens to the Loyola Ballet performance in April. The Chapter created a hand made ornament for the University's Christmas tree.

Scranton's induction speaker, Frank McDonnell, Esq., chair of the University Board of Trustees, was the AΣN student president in 1960. Scranton also inducted the local bishop. They have an eight-person advisory Board to assist the Chapter. St. Louis awards the Outstanding Faculty Award annually. Spring Hill raised funds for a child who has cancer. University of Detroit Mercy Faculty Adviser, Gail Burnett, (Detroit Mercy '93) was awarded a Mission Effectiveness Award with her AΣN activities cited. At Wheeling members collect food supplies and deliver them daily to local soup kitchens. Xavier members canvass the student body to elect the Teacher of the Year.

Sustaining Fund success

The Sustaining Fund soared this year, netting $152,273, an increase of $13,004 over last year's record. The number of donors increased to 2,926, and the average gift went up to $51.36. All of the member schools were represented with Marquette, St. Louis and Loyola Chicago leading in sheer numbers of donors. Young alumni contributed generously again this year. We see these donations as the building blocks for future AΣN services and programming.

Because you are all so busy, we will be offering new and easier ways of contributing to AΣN. You may give gifts of stock simply and easily. The necessary information is posted on the website. Shortly we will be accepting Electronic Donations as well. Forms will be distributed with the Sustaining Fund letter in November. They will be posted on the web before that time. We hope you will give easily and often.

Thank you to all of our generous members for supporting the work of Alpha Sigma Nu. The new administration begins on a high note.

AΣN service works

Are you involved in a great service project? Would you like to let other members know about it? Members wishing us to help publicize their service projects frequently contact the Central Office. AΣN can now help. Just send us a story of no more than 300 words, including the name and email address of the contact person and a picture if possible, and we will publish it in the News section of our website. We will rotate the featured service projects at intervals based on the number of requests we receive. Stories will also be rotated on and off the AΣN homepage as space permits.

We thank you for inspiring us to take on this task. Keep up the good work and take a moment to share that work with us.

Creighton Student Chapter President Dr. Peggy Cheng, 2004-05 President Jennifer Kratochvil, and AΣN member Kelsey Sharpe at the Alpha Sigma Nu Annual Awards Dinner in Omaha this spring.

AΣN family

Theodore Baecher (Fordham '85) writes of the death of his mother-in-law Rhoda K. Channing (Boston College '94). Wake Forest has established a Rhoda K. Channing Library Fund. Memorials may be sent to PO Box 7227, Winston-Salem, NC 27109-7227.

Mark Gaspers (Loyola Marymount '98) is engaged to Mary Glas (St. Joseph's '97). With the engagement ring, he continued the tradition of her father, Joseph Glas, MD, (Rockhurst '58) who proposed to her mother with his AΣN pin.

Alumni Clubs activity

Baltimore Area Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Baltimore Club is AΣN's tenth Alumni Club! Area alumni came together April 26, 2004, and signed the Club petition, which was accepted by the Board June 15, 2004. The group is currently writing the Club purpose and Bylaws, and hopes to host a kick-off event in the fall. Watch the Web page for details.

Greater Boston Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Boston Club participated in a day of fun and service doing spring-cleaning at the Catholic Charities House in South Boston, June 12. This house serves as a transitional residence for clients of Catholic Charities. As a Lenten event, the club enjoyed a lively discussion of Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ" March 31, 2004. The Club held a Holiday Wine and Cheese Reception after attending Boston College's University Chorale's Christmas Concert. Student and Alumni members heard Rev. Gerald Fogarty, SJ, speak on "The Role of the Laity in the Church: A Historical Perspective" at the second Annual Edith Preusse Lecture September 15, 2003.

Greater Buffalo Area Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Buffalo Area Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club continues the traditions of the Annual Mass and Brunch honoring Distinguished Service, as well as support of the AΣN Student Chapter's Benefit Concert, Toy Drive and Holiday Party for Refugees. The Annual AΣN Alumni Mass & Brunch was a huge success. Held on March 28, the event hosted about 50 alumni, students and parents -- the highest attendance ever for this event, and honored Judge Kevin Carter, (Canisius '04) for his extensive mentoring and community development efforts. On Saturday, June 12, 2004, Club members gathered at the Albright-Knox Art Gallery for the "Think Rodin, Think Again" exhibit, followed by lunch. Plans are under way for an afternoon of fun, friends and baseball with the Buffalo Bisons on August 14.

Greater Chicago Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Chicago Alumni Club is active in a variety of service, social and academic projects and events. Members have volunteered at Hephzibah House (a homeless shelter), Breaking Bread (a meal site) and WTTW Channel 11 (the public television station). Their spring schedule included a visit to the International Museum of Surgical Science, walking tour of the Pilsen neighborhood murals and lunch, and architectural and historical walking tour of the Streeterville neighborhood. Many members volunteered at or attended the Loyola Chicago induction on April 4, and the Club co-sponsored a talk by Claire Noonan (JSTB '99) during Loyola's Chapel Series. Ms. Noonan's talk was titled "Laying Down Our Lives: Leadership in a New Generation." The Club is planning a summer social and scholarship fundraiser on July 17 at the Wrightwood Tap in Lincoln Park, as well as another volunteer event at Breaking Bread on July 7. If you are a Chicago AΣN alum, check out the Club's monthly newsletters on Alpha Sigma Nu's Web site and get involved!

Greater Denver Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Denver Club assisted Regis University in hosting the Alpha Sigma Nu Triennial Conference, and greatly contributed to its welcoming atmosphere and smooth operation. The Club had its first service project July 1, 2004, when Club members sorted medical supplies for Project C.U.R.E. Members attend the Regis inductions and serve as liaisons to the new members.

Danahy Club-Southeastern Wisconsin

The Danahy Club's Annual Mass and brunch March 21, 2004, honored Fr. John Naus, SJ, (Marquette '77), former AΣN Faculty Adviser, MU philosophy professor and Assistant to the President of the University. The Club is planning an Ignatian Spirituality event for next fall for coaches of grade-school athletes. Club members also plan to hold the second annual AΣN supper for professionals, this year gathering dentists.

Greater Kansas City Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Kansas City Club is in transition and is looking for new leadership. If interested, please call Kate Gaertner at 414-288-0271. Next year marks the 50th Anniversary of the Visiting Scholars Lecture Series, with the Vincent J. Daues, SJ, Lecture as the signature event. This would be a great event for the Greater Kansas City AΣN Alumni Club to co-sponsor, along with The Center for Arts and Letters at Rockhurst.

Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club of New York

The New York Club welcomed Chris Lowney, author of Heroic Leadership: Best Practices from a 450-Year-Old Company That Changed the World. Lowney shows how self-awareness, ingenuity, love and heroism helped Jesuits succeed and how the same virtues can make us leaders in our personal and professional life. Members hope to plan an annual Family Mass and Brunch, monthly Mass for young alumni, a Boat Cruise event this summer and service opportunities.

Greater Omaha Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club

The Rev. William F. Kelley Endowed Lecture, "The Americanization of Jesuit Education," presented by Dr. Dennis Mihelich, featured reflections on the author's study of the history and evolution of the Jesuits' and Creighton's philosophy of education, followed by a discussion and reception. New officers for the Alumni Club took the helm in January. This past summer concluded many years of faithful and highly capable service to the Alumni Club by Sr. Audrey Tramp, OSB, (Creighton '95). In October, Mary Kalamaja, (Creighton '68) assumed Sister's AΣN duties as Administrative Assistant to Fr. Tom Shanahan, SJ, (Creighton '97) Moderator, AΣN Alumni Club.

Alpha Sigma Nu Alumni Club of Washington, D.C.

The DC Club has chosen the Washington Jesuit Academy as their service partner. WJA is a Nativity Network School. More information can be found at www.wjacademy.org. The Club's committees are Membership, Communications and Service. Members are planning a quarterly series on Ignatian Spirituality, beginning next fall.

Mary Bruemmer, (St. Louis '58) participated in the Triennial at Regis. She has been remarkably active in AΣN. She became Faculty Adviser for Gamma Pi Epsilon at SLU in '67, was on the GPE Board in '71 and represented GPE at the merger meetings with AΣN in 1972-73. She then served on AΣN Board from '72-'78. She became AΣN Faculty Adviser at SLU from '80-'90 and has been the Campus Coordinator since then. That is 46 years of Scholarship, Loyalty and Service.

Everything you want to know about AΣN

What is the protocol for medallions?

They may be worn with academic attire for all ceremonies. They may be displayed in offices and homes.

How do students at Jesuit institutions find out about possible AΣN Membership?

From the top Academic leader and all Deans on campus. They can also direct you to the Faculty Adviser on campus. Contact this office.

What if a student will be studying abroad during junior year?

Contact the Faculty Adviser, Chapter President or Dean before leaving. Be sure to make email address available and accurate. Stay in touch during the time away.
